Reading Goal Letter to Parents

Letters will be going out to families next week with your child's current reading level and the goal to reach by June 2017.

How can we help your child achieve his/her goal? This letter contains reading websites together with user names and passwords so that you may use them at home with your child.

We also ask parents to let us know the best time to hold parent workshops so that teachers may help you to better understand how we can best support your child. We will do our best to arrange multiple workshops to suit your schedule.

Please communicate with your teacher about any concerns. Continue to read the monthly Grade Newsletters and weekly Email Blasts. Come to First Fridays where you will join your child's class in a subject related activity. Strong cooperation between home and school will bring success to our children.

CookShop for Families

During our first CookShop for Families workshop, parents explored food together and discussed concerns about health and nutrition. Participants learned that there are simple, nutritious recipes that use fresh and affordable ingredients in creating healthy meals for our families.

SAVE THE DATE: December 22, 2016, 6:30pm

PTA General Meeting & Winter Holiday Concert

Students have been practicing and rehearsing! Soon they will be ready to take the stage; the Winter Sing Along is sure to be a fun and enjoyable celebration!

Thanks to our parent volunteers, magical 3D snowflakes will add to the décor. We appreciate their time in making and arranging these beautiful decorations.

PS 24 Annual Toy Drive

A big thank you to all who donated toys to our annual Toy Drive. We all can feel better knowing that we are helping 'one more child' enjoy the holiday season. Our Student Government Officers were most helpful in assisting the FreeMAT volunteers with the boxes!
